Kunming Lunan Stone Forest Tour (B)

In the morning, drive for about 1-1.5 hours to reach the Lunan Stone Forest, a UNESCO World Heritage Site covering 400 sq. kilometers, known for its spectacular limestone formations resembling a forest of stone. Spend the entire morning immersing yourself in this stunning natural wonder by visiting the Greater Stone Forest with its towering spires and intricate caves. Afterward, return to downtown Kunming to visit Yuantong Temple, one of China's most prestigious Buddhist sites with over 1,200 years of history. It boasts unique architecture, with a main hall set below the entrance, and offers a tranquil setting complete with detailed sculptures and a lotus pond. If time allows, pay a visit Green Lake Park, a beautiful emerald oasis in Kunming.

In the evening, you may enjoy the grand dance musical 'Dynamic Yunnan' which has been an outstanding innovation on the Chinese stage in recent years directed by Yang Liping. Primitive, unsophisticated folk dances and a fresh artistic concept converge in the program, giving audiences a unique 'Yunnan Impression'. 62 drums and 120 masks of strong ethnic characteristics are incorporated in the performance. (Fee is on your own).

Day 03 :

Bullet train to Dali - Dali City Tour (B)

Today you will take an early morning bullet train to Dali. Upon arrival, Your local guide will meet you at the Dali Railway Station and assist you to the hotel. Visit the Erhai Lake Park, the Three Pagoda Temple and the Dali Old Town. The Erhai Lake is a famous plateau lake in Dali with an altitude of 1,972 m. (6,470 ft.). Due to less pollution, the water is very blue and peaceful that it is long been known as Pearl at the Plateau. You can explore Erhai Lake with a local sightseeing bus, or consider taking a boat or cycling tour around the lake (additional fee is required). Then move to the Three Pagoda Temple, regarded as the cultural symbol of Dali Ancient town and is a typical architectural style of the Tang Dynasty. Afterwards stroll around Dali Ancient town to feel the atmosphere of the town. Then return to your hotel for the evening.
