Itinerary

Jiuzhaigou is known far and wide as a 'natural fairyland', with breathtaking and mystifying natural features. This National Park, which was added to the UNESCO World Natural Heritage list in 1992, has three valleys - home to 114 lakes, 17 waterfalls, 11 rip currents, and 5 travertine beaches. Along with the stunning scenery, the local Tibetan folk customs create a truly exotic land of wonder.

Huanglong Park, which became a World Natural Heritage Site in December 1992, has an elevation of around 3,000 meters (9,840 ft) and is famous for its polychromatic lakes. The collection of multi-colored ponds of various shapes and sizes come in dreamlike hues of yellow, blue, green and brown, due to natural minerals in the water and the reflection and absorption of sunlight on the water. Around the colorful lakes, there are virgin forests and beautiful snow-capped mountains.

Day 01 :
Chengdu / Jiuzhaigou - Huanglong National Park
B=breakfast, D=dinner

Upon arrival at Jiu-Huang airport, you will be met and driven to Huanglong Park (1.5-2 hours drive), which is famous most for its colorful lakes, fascinating landscapes and Buddhist monasteries. The many polychromatic ponds of yellow, blue, green and brown lay scattered throughout the verdant forests of the park. Depending on desires and abilities, guests can either enjoy the tour on foot or by cable car, overall spending 3 to 5 hours in the park. Afterwards, drive to Jiuzhaigou's Qianhe International Hotel or another similar hotel for the night (4 star).

Note:

1. There are daily flights to Jiuzhaigou from Chengdu, Chongqing, Xi'an, Beijing and Shanghai, but Chengdu, Chongqing, and Xi'an offer the most flight options. Please adjust your tour plans according to the flight schedule.

2. If you take afternoon flight to Jiuzhaigou, then we will arrange the visit to Huanglong National Park on the Day 3.

Day 02 :

Jiuzhaigou National Park Sightseeing (B)

Jiuzhaigou is China's premier national park, is located between the Sichuan Basin and the Qinghai-Tibetan Plateau. With crystal clear lakes, waterfalls, virgin forest, endangered plant and animal species, and Tibetan villages to explore, the simple beauty will cause you to forget your troubles and compel you to immerse yourself in the spectacular scenery of this treasured scenic site. Jiuzhaigou Valley literally means "Nine Village Valley," named for the nine Tibetan villages scattered throughout the park, and in the evening, you will have the chance to see the local Tibetan-Qiang minority culture displaying their distinct culture. Overnight will be at Jiuzhaigou Qianhe International Hotel or another similar hotel (4 star).

Day 03 :

Jiuzhaigou / Chengdu By air (B)

After breakfast, drive to Jiu-Huang airport for your will flight back to Chengdu, concluding your trip.
