In the morning, head to Chengdu Eastern Train Station on your own to board the high-speed train from Chengdu to Jiuzhaigou (about 1h40m ride). Upon arrival at Huanglong Jiuzhai train station, you will be picked up and transferred to Huanglong, which is about 40 minutes drive. This World Natural Heritage Site Huanglong National Park, situated at an elevation of approximately 3,000 meters (9,840 ft), is renowned for its vibrant lakes, stunning landscapes, and serene Buddhist monasteries. The park features a plethora of colorful ponds in shades of yellow, blue, green, and brown, scattered amidst lush forests. You have the option to explore the park either on foot or via cable car, allowing for a 3 to 5-hour experience. Afterward, you'll be transferred to your hotel just outside Jiuzhaigou Park, rest and prepare for the next day.

Please note that the cable car at Huanglong Park is not operational from December 16th to the end of March during the winter season. If you wish to visit Huanglong during this period, be prepared for a walk up and down, which may be challenging for some individuals. Alternatively, you can choose to visit Munigou scenic park for easier access.

Today, you will spend a full day exploring Jiuzhaigou, China's premier national park, nestled between the Sichuan Basin and the Qinghai-Tibetan Plateau. The park is renowned for its crystal-clear lakes, enchanting waterfalls, pristine forests,
