Chengdu / Kangding (320KM, 6 hours drive)

Today drive from Chengdu to Kangding, the prefectural capital of Garze Tibetan Autonomous Prefecture in Western Sichuan, it is known as the gateway city to Kham area. The population there is about 100,000 people split with approximately half Tibetans and half Hans and with a small population of other ethnic minorities.

Afternoon explores the local market with your guide to discover the locals' life. In the evening enjoy the dance and music night at the public square in Kangding town, which you surely will be entertained.

Day 03 :

Kangding / Tagong / Bamei / Daofo / Luohuo (280KM, 6-7 hours drive)

Morning drive to cross over Zheduo Mountain (4,200m high) to Xinduqiao, the paradise of photographers, if weather permits, you will see the peaks of Gongga Mountain on the way, the highest peak in Sichuan province.

After Xinduqiao, driver another 40km to Tagong, a small nomadic town with beautiful surrounding grasslands. In Tagong, you will be arranged to visit Tagong monastery, a nomad family and enjoy the breathtaking view with Yala Holy Mountain in the distance.

Afterward continue the way to Luohuo, with a stop to visit Huiyuan temple at Bamei, it was founded in the 18th century by 7th Dalai Lama and 11th Dalai Lama was born here. From the monastery have a great view of the grassland meadow scenery of Bamei. Enjoy the wonderful landscapes on the way and pay a visit to the traditional Daofo Residences in Daofo, which are well decorated with skillful wood-carvings and paintings. After Daofo, drive another 72Km further along Xianshui River to reach Luohuo for overnight.

Day 04 :

Luohuo / Garze (95KM, about 2-3 hours drive)

Morning drive to Garze with a visit Kasar Lake on the way. Garze is a dusty but lively market town in a picturesque valley surrounded by snow-capped mountains. The villages, temples, and monasteries here are perfect for photographers! We will pay a visit to the 500-year-old Garze monastery in the afternoon and a local antique market if time is allowed. Overnight at Garze.

Day 05 :

Garze / Manigango / Yilun Lhatso (Xinluhai) / Derge (205KM, about 6 hours drive)

Today drive from Garze to Derge, which is regarded as the cultural center of the Kham region in northwestern of Sichuan, the last town before the TAR. On the way to Derge, stop to visit Yilun La-tso (Xinluhai) near Manigango, it is a stunning, holy alpine lake lined with hand-carved prayer stones that are more than 600 years old. After Xinluhai, you will cross the Chola pass tunnel to get Derge. The rest of the day is freely exploring Derge. Overnight at Derge.

Day 06 :

Derge / Dzongsar (110KM, about 3 hours drive)

Derge is famous for its 18th-century monastery housing a printing press that still uses traditional wood blocks printing methods. The printing press produces a majority of the Buddhist scripture books used across Tibet. At the printing press, you will watch artisans carving scripture tablets by hand from woodblocks. The whole monastery holds an astonishing 70% of Tibet's literary heritage.

Afternoon drive to Menshod valley where the famous Dzongsar monastery is located also it is a place that the old tradition and culture are well preserved, from Derge, it is roughly about 3 hours driving due to the poor road. Upon arrival at Dzongsar, if you don't feel so tired, then visit a handicrafts center or the local Tibetan hospital. Overnight at Dzongsar.

Day 07 :

The current lama for this monastery is a world-known teacher, His Holiness the Dzongsar Jamyang Kyentse. Morning do a short hike up to visit Dzongsar monastery, which is perched on a hill, where you can have a great view of Menshod valley. And the rest of the day is to explore the Dzongsar village and its surroundings for an authentic Tibetan life. Afternoon head to Pelyul (about 2 hours drive), a small beautiful city by the river Ding Chu. Upon arrival visit Pelyul Monastery (Baiyu Si), it is a famous Nyingma Sect monastery that had played a great role in history and held many subsidiary temples. Overnight at Pelyul.

Day 08 :

Pelyul / Yarchen Gar / Xinlong, about 260km, 6-7 hours drive

Today we will drive about 2-3 hours to visit Yarchen Gar monastery (Yaqing Si), which was built in 1985 as a religious center of the Nyingma tradition of Tibetan Buddhism. Along with Larung Gar, these are the two largest Buddhist learning institutes in Tibetan plateau. It housed more than 10,000 Sangha, and most of them are nuns.

Yarchen Monastery lies on a grassy island surrounded by river and mountains. The nearby hills are scattered with box-like max 2 square meters size red meditation-huts built by nuns, in which nuns will spend around 3-5 months long in winter for meditation. On the hilltop, there is a statue of Padmasambhava (Lotus-Born), where tourists can have an overview of the island. Sitting here and enjoying the view appeals to your mind no less than other monasteries in Kham. Later afternoon drive to Xinlong with nice landscapes on the way. Overnight at Xinlong.

Day 09 :

Xinlong / Litang / Daocheng, 300km, about 6 hours drive

In the morning drive down along the Yalong river to Litang with stunning landscapes. Litang is situated on the Maoya grasslands, it means 'place as flat as a bronze mirror' in Tibetan. Litang is an important transit town along the ancient trade business route between Tibetans from Tibet and the local Hans at Kangding and Ya'an city. At Litang, visit Litang monastery, this monastery has a close and tight relation with the 7th, 10th, 11th Dalai Lhama.

Afternoon continues the driving to Daocheng, it is a county that you will enjoy because of its rich soil & Tibetan culture, and a good place for recharging yourself before Yading. You may relax by bathing at the hot spring & the Tibetan local dancing show. Overnight at Daocheng.
